COURSE DESCRIPTION

By all accounts, migration is a defining issue of the 21st century. United Nations data shows that the total number of international migrants increased from 75 million in 1960 to 244 million in 2015. Adding over 740 million internal migrants, the total number of migrants is just under 1 billion worldwide today (out of 7.4 billion total). 60 million of these are IDPs or refugees. In 2015, 47 million international migrants are in the US—Where are all the others? Europe hosted the most (76 million), followed by Asia (75 million), Northern America (54 million), Africa (21 million), Latin America and the Caribbean (9 million) and Oceania (8 million). In this context of accelerated migration, this course explores im/migration and culture, embedded in a transnational field of social, economic, and political relations. We follow current approaches in social sciences that understand international migration as the effect of a patterned process of global restructuring of capital and culture, which has ushered in an era of new migration pressures since the early 1970s. Both long-standing and recent structural processes and transnational connections underlie contemporary migrations: colonialism, war and military occupation/intervention, economic development, globalization of trade, labor recruitment by transnational corporations, global flows of technology, information, media, and culture. This global integration builds objective and subjective “bridges” that link migrants’ homelands to their “host” societies, creating “transmigrants” whose lives cut across national boundaries. Migrants are now a chief “export” of many countries, and migrants’ wage remittances are a chief resource for many national economies. Nations on both ends of the migrant stream now seek to “manage” migration, and migration has become a lightning rod for controversy worldwide, as well as cause célèbre for migrant social justice and human rights.

Within a global migration framework and from a social justice perspective, this course explores empirical research about migration patterns and migrant receiving and sending countries around the world. Questions we consider include: Why and under what social conditions do people migrate? What has been the impact of out-migration on the migrants’ home countries? How are individual migrants and their communities situated in the social process of global migration? How do migrants negotiate their contradictory experience of being caught between the nation and the globe, and manage their diasporic identities to adjust to their shifting positioning? How do experiences vary for different types of migrants (economic migrants, political or environmental refugees, trafficked or internally displaced people)? How do migrants resist their devaluation as Other within nations of settlement, and their subordination within a transnational economy that increasingly depends on their labor even as this contribution is devalued? With half the world’s migrants currently female, how has migration affected gender relations in countries of origin and settlement? How have the ethnic diversity and cultural hybridity of migrant diasporas challenged native citizens worldwide to re-imagine their own national communities?

EXPECTED LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Understand relationship between globalization and transnational migration since 1970s
- Grasp migration as a patterned process embedded in a transnational field
- Acquire familiarity with key approaches to migration current in social sciences at macrostructural, intermediate institutional, and individual subject levels of analysis
- Explain reasons why specific peoples from different world regions leave or have been displaced from their homelands (whether as “economic migrants” or refugees)
- Explain what historical connections lead migrants to cross “bridges” linking them to specific destinations
- Explain the economic and social impact of migration on home and host communities
- Prepare students to intelligently engage in US & global im/migration debates as informed citizens
- “Unpack” the meaning behind the favorite American phrase, “in search of a better life”

Beyond the Classroom This course takes us beyond the classroom and book work to integrate experiential learning through conducting migrant interviews, a field trip to the US/Mexico border, guest speakers, sharing of our own migrant stories, and creating dynamic web portfolios of key assignments to communicate what we've learned about global migration to a broader community audience.

BorderLinks Field Trip Weds. April 6: An educational field trip to Nogales, Sonora, Mexico with the non-profit educational organization BorderLinks will add an exciting dimension to this course. This full-day excursion will be tailored to our course topic and may include activities such as: orientation in Tucson at BorderLinks; walk on desert migrant trails; interviews with migrants at Grupos Beta (Mexico's border patrol); lunch with families in a colonia squatters' settlement; visit to a maquiladora industrial factory; market basket survey exercise to compare cost of living on both sides of the border; visit to a migrant shelter/community center; discussions with migrants and US & Mexican experts and officials about migration issues. This educational immersion experience will bring home many of the topics studied in the course. As indicated on the ASU Course Schedule, a fee of $140 per student is required. Two checks or money orders will be collected in class by March 2: 1) $100.00 made out to "BorderLinks," 2) $40 made out to "ASU," for the charter bus to/from Tucson. Everyone is expected to attend the field trip!

YOU WILL NEED A PASSPORT BOOK or CARD—APPLY RIGHT AWAY TO RECEIVE IN TIME!

Please arrange your schedule and obligations to enable you to attend this important part of the course!

Dr K will provide letters to request that you be excused from other classes or work

MUST COMPLETE ALL GRADED & UNGRADED ASSIGNMENTS TO QUALIFY FOR FINAL GRADE OF 'A-' & UP

Final grade scale: A+ 98-100 (very rare!); A 93-97; A- 90-92; B+ 88-89; B 83-87; B- 80-82; C+ 78-79; C 70-77; D 60-69; E <60

IMPORTANT: ALL WRITTEN ASSIGNMENTS MUST BE TYPED, DOUBLE-SPACED, and turned in in HARD COPY, and SUBMITTED TO BLACKBOARD when required!

ASSIGNMENTS: Students are responsible for all assigned readings. Read PRIOR to the assigned class time. Class lectures and discussions will cover material supplemental to the readings, in addition to guiding you through them, so please come to class--come even if you are late or unprepared! Assignments are due on the date scheduled regardless of absence. Consult with instructor at any time for assistance and ideas on improving your performance. PLEASE CHECK BLACKBOARD REGULARLY.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS: Late assignments will automatically have 10 % deducted from the grade. To encourage you to keep up, LATE PAPERS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED BEYOND TWO WEEKS OF THE DUE DATE. Absence from class does not excuse you from delivering your assignments on time; consult with instructor if this is not possible. Advise instructor of anticipated scheduling difficulties. Missing assignments receive a grade of zero. Must submit ALL assignments to qualify for an 'A-' or better on final grade!

ATTENDANCE and CLASS PARTICIPATION are expected to be energetic and will be considered in assignment of final grades (esp borderline cases). Active, prepared, and informed participation in class includes readiness to discuss the readings as well as your own and your classmates' assignments. Absentees deprive the class of their valuable contributions and also miss the chance to learn from colleagues. Absence is at times unavoidable; nonetheless your grade is likely to suffer. If childcare is a problem, ask dr k if you can bring your child to class. Do not schedule appointments or obligations during class, including presentation days! Forfeit 10% grade for no participation on due date.

WRITING GUIDELINES All work for this course should be at a level appropriate to advanced college students. Mechanics and grammar DO count. Please type and proofread carefully—SpellCheck rules! Everyone can improve writing skills--even terrific writers. Writing Centers located at all ASU campuses offer free tutoring <https://tutoring.asu.edu/writing-centers>. Visit the Writing Center to: explore, plan, and develop ideas; organize and structure a paper; integrate and cite sources; write, revise, edit, and proofread. The Grading Rubric (p. 4) will be used as the assessment tool for all written work. Please review often!

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: The absolute highest standard of integrity and ethical conduct is expected. Deviations from this principle on any graded activity will not be tolerated. Academic misconduct includes cheating on assignments and exams, and plagiarizing (using any work other than your own without proper acknowledgment). Ignorance of proper methods of citation is no excuse for plagiarism. See <http://libguides.asu.edu/integrity>. Academic dishonesty will result in a permanent failing grade. See the ASU Academic Integrity Policy <http://provost.asu.edu/academicintegrity>. NO EXCEPTIONS, NO SECOND CHANCE!

CAVEAT: If necessary or appropriate, the instructor reserves the option to change scheduled class topics, assignments, or due dates. Quizzes may be given if deemed necessary. Fieldtrips & guest speakers may be added. If no time for videos in class, you should view them on your own from library.

ACCOMMODATIONS FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES: The Disability Resource Centers (DRC) provide information and services to ASU students with any documented disability (<https://eoss.asu.edu/drc>). Individualized program strategies and recommendations are available for each student as is current info regarding community resources. Students may also access specialized equipment and support services. Please consult with instructor for any necessary accommodations.

SEXUAL VIOLENCE AWARENESS & RESPONSE: Title IX, a federal law, provides that no person on the basis of sex may be excluded from participation in, be denied benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any education program or activity. Both Title IX and ASU policy clearly prohibit sexual violence and harassment based on sex. An individual who believes they have been subjected to sexual violence or harassed on the basis of sex can seek support, including counseling and academic support, from the university. If you or someone you know has been harassed on the basis of sex or sexually assaulted, you can find information and resources at <https://sexualviolenceprevention.asu.edu/faqs>.

Caution: Professors are mandated reporters, obligated to report any information we learn about regarding alleged acts of sexual discrimination, including sexual violence and dating violence. If you wish discuss any concerns confidentially and privately, contact ASU Counseling Services, <https://eoss.asu.edu/counseling>.

COURSE/INSTRUCTOR EVALUATION: You will receive an email with subject "NCIAS Course/Instructor Evaluation" w/instructions for online course/instructor evaluation 7-10 days before last class day. Responses are anonymous and will not be delivered to instructor until after grades have been submitted. This evaluation is an important process that allows our college to (1) help faculty improve instruction, (2) to help administrators evaluate instructional quality, (3) ensure high standards of teaching, (4) improve instruction and student learning over time.

WARNING: NO INCOMPLETES !! Course withdrawal deadline: 4/3/16. Graduation filing deadline 2/15/16.

GRADING RUBRIC

Instructor will use this rubric to guide and facilitate grading of all assignments, including the “briefs” and discussion points. Please read often! Use this rubric to guide your writing, and refer to it to interpret instructor’s grading. Do not expect to receive full credit on assignments if you have not fully completed all that the assignment requires. (e.g. blanks left on Global Migration Snapshot Worksheet, cites only 3 out of 5 required references...)

|----------|---|
| A | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Meets all requirements of the assignment, or exceeds them (in quality, not quantity; if one page maximum is required, turning in 2 pages simply misses the point of the assignment, which includes writing sharply and succinctly). 2. Sophisticated writing and composition; few errors in grammar, spelling. 3. Skilled analysis and precise argument; meaningful incorporation of vocabulary and concepts relevant to the course. 4. Demonstrates original insights, critical thinking, synthesis of course content, creatively applied to assigned material. 5. Explicit integration of insights, concepts, understandings from the specific readings for this assignment as specified, to shape and sharpen analysis. |
| B | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Meets all requirements of the assignment (e.g. if five citations of references are required, must have all five). 2. Solid and articulate writing and composition; few errors in grammar, spelling. 3. Active and critical discussion of ideas; may be more descriptive than analytical. 4. Demonstrates critical thinking, good grasp of concepts relevant to the course, intellectual creativity and willingness to attempt original applications of concepts. 5. Explicit integration of insights, concepts, understandings from the specific readings for this assignment as specified, to shape and sharpen analysis. |
| C | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Does not meet all requirements of the assignment, incomplete tasks (e.g. cites only 3 out of 5 required references). 2. Weak or careless writing and composition skills; many errors in grammar, spelling. 3. Imprecise language and presentation of ideas, unclear communication. 4. Demonstrates basic grasp of the substance of course concepts and materials; while essentially correct, comprehension and arguments do not stretch beyond the superficial application of concepts and ideas. 5. Implicit (rather than explicit) integration of insights, concepts, understandings from the specific readings for this assignment as specified, to shape and sharpen analysis. |
| D | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Ignores requirements (e.g. no citations supplied when required). 2. Writing and composition skills not at college level. 3. Failure to address the topic of assignment; unclear communication; misreadings or misunderstandings. 4. Incomplete grasp of the basic substance of the course concepts and materials. 5. Lacks any apparent integration of insights, concepts, understandings from the specific readings for this assignment as specified, to shape and sharpen analysis. |

100 point scale used for all assignments. Presentations and group participations are part of the assignment grade; lack of presentation or absence on discussion days will result in 10% deduction of points from grade. Late papers 10% off.

You should attend even if unprepared with the assignment!

NOTE: Pluses and minuses reflect variation and flexibility in grading, in accordance with uneven strengths and weaknesses.

Must complete all graded & ungraded assignments to qualify for final grade of ‘A-’ & up.

Must earn at least a ‘B’ on Crossing the Valley Migrant Interview Project to qualify for any ‘A’ for final grade.

ALSO DUE: MINI PRESENTATION #1: FAMILY MIGRATION ARTIFACT & BRIEF. Bring in an object or item from home that represents your own family's legacy of im/migration (e.g. photo, document, household article, recipe, artifact—ask family members for help!). Give a one-minute show-and-tell mini-presentation. To prepare, write up a "brief" explaining the meaning this object holds for you and/or your family. Include: where did they come from, when did they come, why did they emigrate here. This will go on your Web Portfolio, along with a scan or photo of your object and a map of your family's homeland(s) showing their path to the US (save these materials for your web site). 1/2 to 1 page max, double-spaced.

DUE: DISCUSSION POINTS #1: Based on your reading of Voyages, write up three points about Tongan migration that you wish to raise for discussion. Okay to ask questions, but answer them too! Be sure to explicitly ground your points in the book. Explain your points by explicitly referring to the author's discussion and give a supporting example from the book. Integrate author & title in your sentences. Aim: show that you've done your homework thoughtfully & generate informed discussion about migration (focus!). A juicy paragraph each point. 1.5 page max, double-spaced.

DUE: MINI-PRESENTATION #2: MIGRANTS IN THE CITY AND “BRIEF.” Take yourself on a fieldtrip to the 'border' inside metro Phoenix. The border is zone of interaction where the US and another country come together, intersect, butt up against or bleed into each other, whether in an easy blend or a contentious edginess. Migrants have created social/geographical “border” spaces like this throughout the Phoenix metro area. Go to such a “border” zone. Immerse yourself there for a while. Observe, interact, chat with people. Take notes, take a photo, and record the location. In your “brief,” swiftly describe and analyze what you see at this “border” in light of what we’ve studied about immigration. Be sure to explain how your site relates to this assignment, and you DRAW ON ONE ARTICLE FROM TODAY’S READINGS IN YOUR ‘BRIEF’ TO HELP SHAPE YOUR ANALYSIS; MUST EXPLICITLY CITE AUTHOR/TITLE in your text. Use ONE photo or an artifact to anchor your show-and-tell one-minute mini-presentation. Fieldwork may be done in pairs, teams, individually, or take a friend; each person writes their own “brief” taking their own angle on the site/sight/cite. Hand in “brief”: ½-1 p max, double-spaced. Will go in Web Portfolio.

- MPI, “Ten Facts About US Refugee Resettlement” (Oct 2015)
- A selection of recent news reports on the refugee crisis in the Mediterranean and beyond will be posted on BB.

VIDEO: TBD

GUESTS: International Rescue Committee—hopefully!

DUE: DISCUSSION POINTS #2: Write up three points for discussion, grounded in today’s readings. Please review as many of the news reports as you can, also maps, interactive and refugee agency sites. Write your discussion points based on what you learn in these materials as follows:

- Point 1: a broad point related to your overall observations of what’s going on in the Mediterranean refugee crisis
- Points 2 & 3: can be more specific points on particular issues that grab your interest.

Be sure to explicitly ground your points in the articles (integrate author & title, at least one per point). Be brief! A juicy paragraph each point. 1.5 page max, double-spaced.

WK 8 3/2 INTERNAL MIGRATION: CHINA'S FLOATING POPULATION: 200+ Million "Illegals"

- DUE: Checks or money orders: $100.00 to "Borderlinks" and bus fee $40.00 to "ASU"
- Myerson et al, "Home and Away: Chinese Migrant Workers Between Two Worlds," Sociological Review 2010
- Selection of required internet articles on internal migration in China (click links in BB folder for WK 8 readings)

• QUIZ #3 ON THE CHINA MATERIALS

- Internal migration is a very important form of migration. The UN estimates that 740 million people are migrants within their own countries; that's over three times more than the 232 million who move from one country to another! For individual migrants, internal migration happens for much the same reasons as international movements that can mostly be boiled down to a "search for a better life." In China alone, 210+ million people have moved from countryside to city in the last 20 years, quite astonishing. You'll be intrigued that most of these migrants are considered to have 'illegal' status, even though they remain in their own country, due to the regional residential status requirement known as a "hukou." China is trying to address this problem. How does China's treatment of these internal migrants offer comparative insights about the US treatment of unauthorized migrants?

Check out No More Deaths' "Alternative Spring Break"! <http://forms.nomoredeaths.org/volunteer/spring/svp-application-information/> (application is due Jan 24, 2016; you could apply to USGW for funds to cover the $300 fee)

WK 10 3/16 NO CLASS: Dr K is presenting a paper at the Urban Affairs Assoc conference in San Diego.
PLEASE READ CROSSING THE VALLEY!

EXTRA CREDIT ACTIVITY: Attend a Naturalization Ceremony at the Sandra Day O'Connor US Courthouse in downtown Phoenix (most Fridays at 10 am & 1:30 pm); submit a one-page brief of your observations, incorporating course concepts. Do it this week when we have no class! Take a friend! (other activities may be identified later) MUST SUBMIT WITHIN 48 HOURS OF ACTIVITY. Earn 1% for final grade.

WK 11 3/23 MIGRANT INTERVIEWS: CROSSING THE BOULEVARD, CROSSING THE VALLEY

- Lehrer & Sloan, *CROSSING THE BLVD: Strangers, Neighbors, Aliens in a New America
- READ AS MUCH AS YOU CAN, AT LEAST 50% OF THE BOOK—SKIP AROUND! Read at least three interviews in each of the 5 chapters. This is a GREAT book, FUN to read!
- See also the web site for the book, listen to interview segments, get ideas for your own Multimedia Ethnography for our Crossing the Valley class web project <http://www.crossingtheblvd.org/>
- Berger, "Queens Libraries Speak the Mother Tongue" NYTimes 1-2-12 (BB) fascinating!

We will workshop questions for our migrant interview project today based on this book.

DUE: DISCUSSION POINTS #3. To get inspired for our Crossing the Valley final class web project, write up a list of 5 key ideas about migration that you found to be most effective or insightful in the immigrant stories that you read in Crossing the BLVD. Explain each idea briefly with supporting examples from the book. Then, turn each idea into a concise general question that can guide our interviews with immigrants here in the Valley of the Sun and help design our web pages. You may consider the book's creative presentation strategies (images, font, layout) as well as questions to ask our potential interviewees to elicit a rich understanding of their "voyages here and there." Note the creative ways the book presents migrants' first-person narratives and supplementary explanations and images—INSPIRING! Be brief! 1½-2pp

- VIDEO: I Learn America (Dissard & Peng 2013) powerful film tracks NY high school students who are immigrants or refugees; Caminata: The Journey (Meltzer 2009 15 min)—theme park in Mexico simulates border crossing! or We Don't Play Golf Here (Landau 2007) 33 min.

WK 12 3/30 FINAL PREPARATION FOR FIELDTRIP NEXT WEEK Did you pay the fees?? Got passport??
Crossing the Valley Interview instructions and Release Forms to be handed out today too.

WK 14 4/13 DUE: BORDERLINKS FIELDTRIP REPORT (3-4 pp) Describe two or three key aspects that impressed you most about the field trip and explain why. You must explicitly incorporate at least three points from Miriam Davidson’s book Lives on the Line. Explain how insights from these points help you to more effectively analyze your observations and impressions in relation to our study of migration. Please push your discussion beyond the tendency to simply state how much more you will now appreciate your life in the US!

NOTE: Failure to integrate explicit points from the book will result in a max grade of “C.” See Grading Rubric.

Discussion and Debriefing of Our Field Trip Experiences!

ALSO: WEBMASTER WORKSHOP TODAY: Learn to create web pages for your final Web Portfolio.

We will use Jimdo.com to create our web pages. DON’T MISS IT!!!

- BRING: on cd/flash drive (or in digital drop box) your Family Migration Artifact “brief” (corrected!), a map, and scan/photo of your artifact, to create and finish your first web page. You can also bring materials for your Migrants in the City web page and finish that one too!

ALSO BRING: Your PHOTOS from our Nogales fieldtrip. If you can bring your photos on a flash drive, Dr K can copy them in class and will post them to the PHOTOGALLERY on our website for everyone to access for their web pages.

WK 15 4/20 WORK ON WEB PORTFOLIO IN CLASSDUE: ORAL PROGRESS REPORT ON CROSSING THE VALLEY INTERVIEW PROJECT

Who are you interviewing? When are you doing the interview? Don't forget your signed Release Form!

By the end of today's class you should be done with all your web pages except your interview project!

- PREPARE: Have all your written assignments WEB READY: polished, proofed, and FINISHED! Select in advance photos, maps and save in a folder. Use our Course Photo Gallery! Bring text and images either on disk, CD, flash drive, or digital dropbox.
- Note: convert all your text to .doc or .rtf format (not .wps or .wpd etc), and all photos to .jpg!

WK 16 4/27 CONTINUE WEB PORTFOLIO WORK IN CLASS

- You should be creating your migrant interview web pages today! Show progress on web site in class.
- REFLECTIVE LETTER: 10% of Web Portfolio grade. Don't forget it! Reflective Letter should be your final reflections on what you learned about global migration in our course to share with your web readers. Address it to a group of your choice (e.g. Dear Arizonans, people of the world, all migrants, anti-immigrant groups, migrant youth, college students, etc). Talk about two or three key ideas/issues/insights that you feel you gained understanding into through our course, and pass on those insights to your readers. This is an important piece of your Web Portfolio, so give it some thought. The letter should be at least one full page (double-spaced). Due on the final exam day in Web Portfolio (no need to turn in a hard copy).

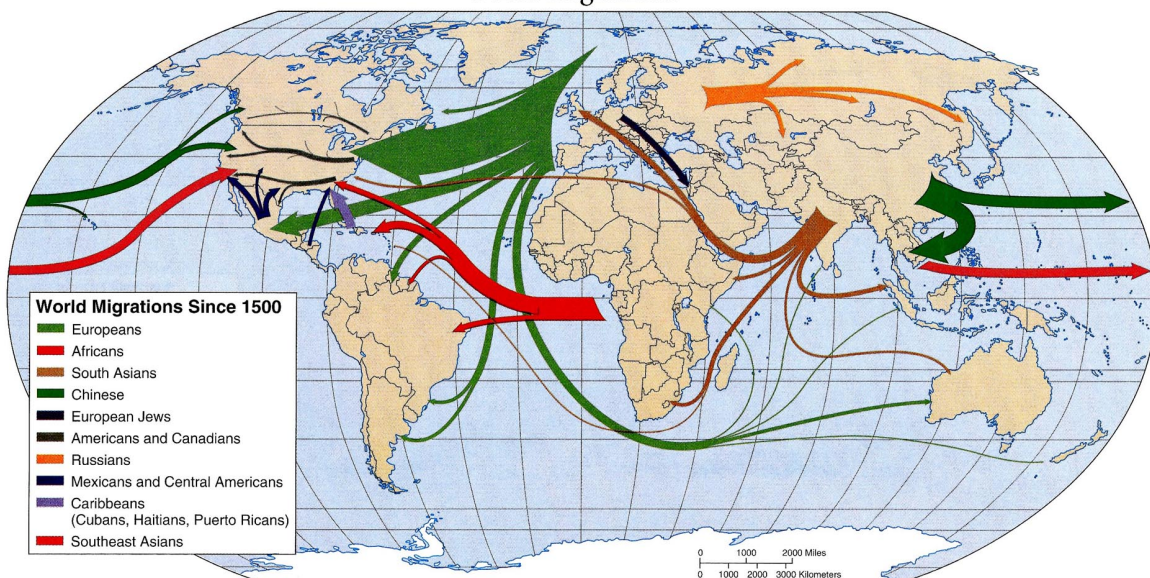

WK 17 5/4 FINAL EXAM DAY CLASS 6:00-7:50 pm FINAL PECHA KUCHA PRESENTATIONSDUE: MINI-PRESENTATION #3: BRIEF PECHA KUCHA PRESENTATION ON YOUR INTERVIEW

- Instead of "brief," prepare only five PowerPoint slides about your interview project, and plan to speak about it for only about five minutes. (see instruction sheet)
- Did you submit your signed Release Form? (10% of paper grade)
- ALL STUDENTS ARE EXPECTED TO REMAIN PRESENT FOR THE FULL EXAM PERIOD!

DUE: FINAL WEB PORTFOLIO (see instruction sheet)

- Make final touches on your web pages during class. Please test all links!

Must complete all graded & ungraded assignments to qualify for final grade of 'A-' & up.
Must earn at least a 'B' on Crossing the Valley Interview Project to qualify for final grade of 'A-' & up.
